BSA Annual Health & Medical Record form #680-001 2019 Printing is required. Last year's or old health forms will not be accepted. High Adventure Medicals are not acceptable. Three copies of Medical forms signed by doctor are needed. For PDF fill able form go to https://scoutingevent.com/attachment/BSA425/document_15798789691_7803.pdf

All medications will be kept and dispensed by Scoutmaster. Please put all medications in a clear ziplock bag with the scout's name and prescription information. Medications will be kept under lock and key and a reminder and log will be kept for scouts taking medications. A statement signed by parent or guardian must request leader dispensing of medications rather than camp management. See bottom statement on permission slip.

Closed Toed Shoes are required by the camp. Crocs are acceptable. We recommend socks to be worn with all shoe types (even if going to the shower or waterfront).

We don't recommend your scout spending all his time or money at the trading post. The grill will be off limits to our group with the excepting of a special occasion with prior approval from the scoutmaster.

Mail should be sent before Wednesday as there is a lag in delivery. No mail should be sent after Wednesday. Mail to Scout's Name, Troop #320/421, Camp Bowers, 13165 NC Hwy 53 West, White Oak, NC 28399

If your scout is planning to bring a bicycle, special provisions need to be made. All scouts will wear a helmet when riding.

Several Merit badges may require extra payment to cover supplies. Payment must be made before camp. Payment can be made via credit card with a credit charge fee. Merit badge Payment should be payable to Camp Bowers, Cape Fear District or BSA.

Some merit badges offered in camp may require some work either before, or after, camp in order to complete the merit badge. These requirements are shown in the special notes column in the listing of merit badges in the Leader's Guide on line. Some merit badges have requirements that cannot be completed at camp. All Merit badges must be approved by the scoutmaster prior to registration of merit badges.

Troop 320 will also conduct merit badge classes within troop during the week. The badge will be selected by the PLC prior to summer camp.
